

soundbites

A.E. Bowers Elementary School

The Gr. 2 students at A.E Bowers are hosting the school's Remembrance Day Assembly, Nov. 10, at 10:30 am in the gym. The event is open to the Bowers' school community. To find out more, contact any of the Gr. 2 teachers at 403.948.4511.

All K-Gr. 4 students at Bowers will be treated to the talents of professional storyteller and musician, Jeff Stockholm, when he visits classrooms on Nov. 23. Jeff's use of the Celtic harp breathes life into the stories he has gathered from around the world. Contact Trena McKinnon at 403.948.4511 to find out more.

Banded Peak School

WWII plunged teen Dr. Eva Olsson into the heart of concentration camps, disease, and the deaths of millions, including most of her family. Decades later, this Holocaust survivor uses her experiences to focus on the key issues of having compassion and respect for ourselves and others. On Nov. 6, beginning at 11:00 am, Dr. Olsson will address an audience of Banded Peak Gr. 5-8 students with her character building message. Call Brenda Staniforth at 403.949.2292 for more details.

Mount Royal Theatre Troop is set to perform at Banded Peak, Nov. 13, from 12:30-1:30 pm, for all students and staff. To find out more, call Lynn Fischer at 403.949.2292, ext. 263.

Bow Valley High School

Bow Valley High's Music Society is hosting a Fall Band Concert for parents, students, and community members, Nov. 3, from 7-9 pm in the BVHS gym. Highlights include performances by the choir, concert band and jazz band. To find out more, call Rob Billington at 403.932.9005, ext. 1036.

BVHS's annual post-secondary Career Fair is slated for Nov. 26, from 7-8:30 pm in the gym. Twenty-five post-secondary institutions will be on hand to showcase their career programs, with a focus on the environment. The event is open to the public. Contact Lana Allen at 403.932.9005, ext. 3010 for more details.

Cochrane High School

Cochrane Family Community Support Services (FCSS) is pleased to host an evening with Dr. Eva Olsson, Holocaust survivor, Nov. 5 at 7 pm, in the CHS Lyceum. Dr. Olsson's experiences in the Auschwitz concentration camp translate into a passionate presentation on the power of hate and the need for change. The event is open to the general public, but not recommended for children under the age of 12. Tickets are $10/each. To register call the FCSS office at 403.851.2250.

Cochrane High's Parent/Teacher/Student Interviews are slated for Nov. 12 & 17, from 5:30-8:10 pm. Parents of CHS students are encouraged to attend to review Semester 1 midterm marks. For more details, call the school office at 403.932.2542.

Crossfield Elementary School

Lest we forget! Crossfield Elementary and W.G. Murdoch will host a joint Remembrance Ceremony, Nov. 10, at 10:30 am in the W.G. gym. Special guests include Legion members and Town officials. Student choirs and poems will highlight the program. Contact Jacqui Kiernan for more details, 403.946.5696.

Stand UP to Bullying! That's what students at Crossfield Elementary will be doing on Nov. 20, when they join kids across Canada in Family Channel's bid to raise awareness for bullying prevention. The historic event begins on-air in the east and will move across Canada, with Crossfield Elementary scheduled to join the 'wave' at 10 am. Contact Tammy Dikeman, 403.946.5696, to find out more.

Elizabeth Barrett Elementary School

Elizabeth Barrett students will learn about anti-bullying through the "Power of One", Nov. 2, at 1:30 pm. The anti-bullying message will be conveyed through skits performed by Soren Bennick. For more details, call the school at 403.932.3151.

It's a time to pause and remember. Elizabeth Barrett invites students, staff, and families to its Remembrance Day Assembly, Nov. 10, at 10:50 a.m. Highlights of the ceremony include a guest speaker from the Legion. Call the school office, 403.832.3151, if you need to know more.

Glenbow Elementary School

Glenbow students will be celebrating diversity and cultural awareness on Global Awareness Day, Nov. 6. Parents are welcome to participate. For more details, call Arlene Stormeon at 403.932.4922.

In remembrance of the men and women who fought for our freedom, Glenbow is holding its Remembrance Day assembly, Nov. 10, 10:25 am in the gym. The ceremony is open to staff, students and parents. Janet Friesen is the contact at 403.932.4922.

Indus Elementary School

Motivational Magic presents "Be Aware and Care" to Indus K-Gr. 7 students, Nov. 3 at 10 a.m. More details on this anti-bullying show are available by contacting Chael Wyper, 403.936.5855.

Sacrifices of the past for the freedom of the present! That's what Indus School will be celebrating at its Remembrance Day assembly, Nov. 10, from 10:30-11:30 a.m in the school gym. The ceremony is open to the community of Indus. To find out more, call Judy Hamel at 403.936.5855.

Kathryn School

Alien life forms discover Kathryn School! No need to panic ... there's a contest and it's part of the Galaxy-themed Scholastic Book Fair, scheduled for Nov. 16-20 in the library. For full details, call Jacqui Corry at 403.935.4291.

Autism Calgary Assoc. is hosting "Friend 2 Friend" in the Kathryn school library, Nov. 25. Gr. 1-8 students will learn friendship skills that will help them interact with peers who may have Autism Spectrum Disorder. Kate O'Donoghue can be contacted for more info at 403.935.4291.

Langdon School

Langdon School will honor war veterans and active militia in its Remembrance Day service, Nov. 10, 10:30 a.m. This year the program will focus on First Nation's veterans and women in the military. In conjunction, the school also will hold its annual food drive in support of the Calgary War Veterans. All students and parents are invited to attend. For more details, call Colin McCartney at 403.936.4579.

soundbites/2

Langdon School (continued)

It may start as a lump of mud, but after "Clay for Kids" visits Gr. 1 and Gr. 3 classes at Langdon School on Nov. 17, it'll be a work of art! Curriculum-based student projects will be fired and returned to the school in time to give as Christmas gifts. (Can't give more details or it'll ruin the surprise! Please don't tell their parents!) Call Kelly Lord (Gr. 1) or Arden Campbell (Gr.3) at 403.936.4579 for more 'dirt' on the subject.

Meadowbrook Middle School

Meadowbrook Middle's Gr. 8 drama students will be featured in the school's Remembrance Day Ceremony, Nov. 10. For more info, call Paul Hilton at 403.948.5656. Parents are welcome to attend.

Go, Stamps, Go! That'll be the resounding cheer at the Red Zone Assembly, slated for Nov. 25 in the Meadowbrook gym. This student/staff spirit activity has been organized through the Calgary Stampeders Football Club. To find out more, call Chris Naylor or Tim Fath at 403.948.5656.

Mitford Middle School

Holocaust survivor Dr. Eva Olsson will recount her life experiences as she shares her "Legacy of Learning" message with Mitford and Bears paw grade 7 & 8 students. Event is scheduled for Nov. 6, 12:30 pm, in the Mitford gym. Find out more by calling Nancy Turner at 403.932.4457.

Mitford's Cochrane Christian Program is running its Operation Christmas Child shoebox campaign through to Nov. 10. Students are collecting school supplies and small toys to send to children in underprivileged areas of the world. Contact Tracy Topolnisky at 403.932.4457 for more information.

Nose Creek Elementary

Nose Creek Elementary students will commemorate Remembrance Day with an assembly, Nov. 10, at 10:30 a.m. in the gym. Parents are welcome to attend. Details available by calling the school, 403.945.1001.

PRO Awards will be handed out Nov. 27 at noon to deserving Nose Creek students.

These awards are given in recognition of the virtues students have learned and displayed in student/staff interactions. Call Robert MacLellan at 403.945.1001 for more information.

Prairie Waters Elementary School

Canadian history will be portrayed in the 'Klondike Rag', a musical theatre production slated for Nov. 6, at 8:30 am in the gym. All Prairie Waters students will participate as audience members in this presentation, supported by School Council funds. For more details, call Keith Hadden at 403.285.6969.

The Burn Foundation's message to Prairie Waters' students will be one of fire safety, based on the real-life experiences of burn victim Lynda Fraser. The presentation is scheduled for Nov. 19, from 8:30 am - 1:30 pm in the gym. Contact Keith Hadden, 403.285.6969, to find out more.

Rainbow Creek Elementary School

Bully Awareness Week, Nov. 16-20, will provide Rainbow Creek students, staff, and parents the opportunity to attend workshops on bully awareness and self-esteem building. The weeklong rally also features a "Burn Prevention" inspirational speaker. Contact Jeff Gray, 403.273.8129, for more info.

All Rainbow Creek parents/guardians are encouraged to call the school, 403.273.8129, to schedule a meeting time for Parent-Teacher Interviews. The interviews take place Nov. 23-24, with report cards going home on Nov. 18. Parents will notice a new report card format used this term.

R.J. Hawkey Elementary School

There'll be a little swagger in the step of R.J. Hawkey students when Sound Kreations conducts a week-long Hip-Hop Residency, Nov. 2-6. Students will learn the hip-hop technique and then be able to show-off to friends and family at the Family Dance, Nov. 6, from 6-8 pm. If you need to know more, contact Gayla Worden, 403.948.3939.

Remembrance Day will be commemorated at R.J. Hawkey on Nov. 10 with an assembly, 10:30 am in the gym. R.J. families and its community are invited to attend the ceremony. Call Gayla Worden at 403.948.3939 for full details.

Ralph McCall School

The Culture Committee at Ralph McCall School is hosting a character building assembly, Nov. 23, from 1:50-2:50 pm. K-Gr. 5 students are certain to be captivated by the magic of Steve Harmer. Desiree Bibby is the school contact at 403.948.7030.

A Red Zone Assembly is slated for Nov. 25, 10:30 - 12 noon, at Ralph McCall. Grade 5-8 students will be treated to fun and games, music and laughter, plus a guest appearance and motivational talk from a CFL celebrity. For further details, call Fraser Montgomery at 403.948.7030.

Springbank Middle School

Springbank Middle's Gr. 5-8 students will be inspired by the words of Dr. Eva Olsson, Holocaust survivor, as she speaks to the importance of compassion and respect. The presentation, scheduled for Nov. 10, 1 pm, is open to parents and will be tied to Remembrance Day activities. Call Karen Mauro, 403.242.4456, to find out more.

W.G. Murdoch School

W.G. Murdoch and Crossfield Elementary will host a joint Remembrance Ceremony, Nov. 10, 10:30 am, in W.G.'s gym. Legion members and Town officials have been invited as guests. Contact Greg Roberts at 403.946.5665 for more details.

Concrete Theatre brings "Routes" to W.G. Murdoch, Nov. 12, at 2 pm. The theme of the presentation is family violence and bullying. W.G. extends an invitation to the community of Crossfield as well. Call Greg Roberts at 403.946.5665 for more information.

Westbrook School

Westbrook School has scheduled Dean DePaoli to talk to Gr. 5-8 students about Internet Safety and Cyber-Bullying, Nov. 6, at 1:45 pm. Parents are welcome to attend and learn of safety issues, sites and current trends on the world wide web. For more info., call Glenn McClure at 403.932.5443.