IRA STROH APPOINTED AS PRINCIPAL OF LANGDON SCHOOL

Rocky View School Division's (RVSD) Superintendent of Schools Greg Bass is pleased to announce the appointment of Ira Stroh as Principal of Langdon School, effective August, 2008.

“Ira has a strong track record of being a leader with the ability to work effectively with parents, students and teachers,” said Bass. “His extensive experience as an administrator will serve him well in his new role. I look forward to his principalship at Langdon.”

Currently the Principal of Beiseker School, Stroh has 16 years of administrative experience working in Rocky View and 21 years as an educator. Within the Division he has worked at Bert Church High School in Airdrie and at Beiseker Community School in Beiseker. Prior to arriving in the jurisdiction, Stroh served as a teacher and vice principal at St. Thomas More School in Fairview, Alberta.

Stroh holds a Masters of Arts, specializing in Administration and Curriculum from the University of Gonzaga, and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Lethbridge. Stroh also has completed graduate courses in International Educational Leadership with San Diego State University and has served on a number of leadership committees within the jurisdiction, including its Budget and Allocation Committee.

“On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I extend my congratulations to Ira on his new role as Principal of Langdon School,” said Board Chair Sylvia Eggerer. “We look forward to his continued leadership in our jurisdiction.
