

Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 6, 2017

RE: Director of Learning Services Announced

Rocky View Schools' (RVS) Superintendent of Schools Greg Luterbach is pleased to announce the appointment of Pam Davidson as Director Learning Services, effective the summer of 2017.

"In the fall of 2017, our Learning Department will realign its services and rename its 21st C Learning Branch to Learning Service," said Luterbach. "We are so pleased that Pam has agreed to lead up this Branch, which will be charged with providing leadership and strategic direction for instructional, curricular, assessment and school improvement initiatives. It also will be responsible for aligning all professional learning initiatives with the RVS Four-Year Plan within the context of provincial priorities and goals."

Currently the Acting Director of 21st C Learning, Pam is a strong advocate of shared leadership, professional learning, and forward thinking instructional practices. In addition to her role as Acting Director, Davidson's tenure in RVS dates back to 1992 and includes four principalship, as well assistant principal and teaching positions. Throughout her career, Davidson has built a reputation for being an innovative leader with a work ethic second to none. She is widely respected across the jurisdiction for building high performing educational teams.

Davidson holds a Master of Education specializing in Adult, Community, and Higher Education from the University of Calgary and a Bachelor of Education with Distinction from the University of Alberta. During her time in RVS, Davidson has served and/or led several RVS initiatives and committees, covering topics such as literacy/numeracy to leadership development.

"On behalf of the Board, I extend our congratulations to Pam on her new Directorship," said Board Chair Colleen Munro. "We look forward to her continued leadership role in our jurisdiction."

-30-

Further information contact:

Angela Spanier
Director of Communications
403.945.4012