Rocky View Schools Community Learning seeks volunteer board members and new instructors

Rocky View Schools Community Learning (RVSCL) is committed to providing meaningful and engaging lifelong learning opportunities that will inspire a love of learning and community.

RVSCL is currently seeking volunteer members, from all walks of life, to sit on its Community Learning Advisory Board. Advisory Board members provide guidance and support in identifying the unmet learning needs of the community and in setting the learning priorities for RVSCL. Community Learning Advisory Board members should:

- Be enthusiastic about adult education and lifelong learning
- Live or work within the geographic area served by Rocky View Schools
- Have an understanding and willingness to share about the needs of your community
- Promote the value of continuous learning
- Be willing to commit time for advisory board meetings and other special events

Residents interested in volunteering as a Board member should visit RVSCL's website before June 28, 2010, to complete its volunteer package and submit a copy of their resume to communitylearning@rockyview.ab.ca.

RVSCL also is searching for qualified individuals to instruct courses in the areas of English Language Learning, adult basic literacy, family literacy and employability, community issues and general interest courses. If you are interested in instructing for RVSCL complete an Instructors Application package available through its website before July 5, 2010.

Funded in part by Alberta Advanced Education and Technology, RVSCL's goal is to address the part-time, noncredit learning needs of adults and communities of Rocky View. RVSCL also aims to increase opportunities for adults and their families to acquire literacy skills and to mobilize volunteer resources to support learning. Areas of programming include: English Language Learning, Adult Basic Literacy, Family Literacy, Employability and Professional Development, Community Issues and General Interest.
